International transfers

Data processing does not involve the international transfer of such data.

In the event that service provision requires sharing data with service providers - both within and outside the European Union—that support ANHYDRITEC Ltd's services, data transmission is carried out with appropriate safeguards and ensures data security.

Retention

How long is your data retained?

Personal data will be retained for the time necessary to fulfill the purpose for which it was collected, unless there is a legal retention obligation or the data subject objects to or withdraws consent regarding the specific purpose(s) in question.

Rights

What are your rights when providing data to ANHYDRITEC Ltd?

- Any data subject has the right to obtain confirmation as to whether or not ANHYDRITEC Ltd is processing personal data concerning them.
- Any data subject has the right to request the rectification of inaccurate or incomplete personal data held by ANHYDRITEC Ltd so that the data is correct and reflects reality.

- Any data subject has the right to request the deletion of their personal data when, among other reasons, the data is no longer necessary for the purposes for which it was collected, consent for processing is withdrawn, or the data subject has objected to the processing - provided that the conditions set out in applicable regulations are met and there is no legal obligation to retain the data.

- Any data subject has the right to object, on grounds relating to their particular situation, to the processing of their personal data based on ANHYDRITEC's Ltd legitimate interest. In such cases, ANHYDRITEC Ltd will cease processing the data unless it demonstrates compelling legitimate grounds or the need to process the data for the establishment, exercise, or defence of legal claims. Any interested person may request the restriction of the processing of their data when: they contest the accuracy of the data, for a period enabling ANHYDRITEC Ltd to verify it; the processing is unlawful and they oppose the erasure of the data; ANHYDRITEC Ltd no longer needs the data for the purposes of processing, but the interested person needs them for the establishment, exercise, or defence of legal claims; or the worker has objected to the processing pending verification of whether ANHYDRITEC Ltd's legitimate grounds override their own.

INFORMATION REGARDING THE PROTECTION OF PERSONAL DATA OF COMPANY CONTACTS

In the cases provided for by law (processing based on consent or the performance of a contract and carried out by automated means), the data subject has the right to receive the personal data concerning them that they have provided to ANHYDRITEC Ltd in a structured, commonly used, and machine-readable format, and to transmit such data to another controller where technically feasible.

Where the processing of the data subject's personal data is based on their consent, they have the right to withdraw such consent at any time. The withdrawal of consent shall not affect the lawfulness of processing based on consent prior to its withdrawal.

The data subject may exercise the aforementioned rights free of charge by means of a written request addressed to:

Postal address: Legal Department Services, Grupo Minersa, Avenida Algorta nº 16, 48992 (Getxo-Bizkaia)

Email: lopd@minersa.com

In the request, the data subject must clearly indicate which right they wish to exercise and attach a copy of an identity document (DNI, NIE, passport, or equivalent) as well as the information necessary to process the request.

Complaint to the supervisory authority

In any event, the worker has the right to lodge a complaint with the Information Commissioner's Office (ICO) - the UK's supervisory authority for data protection - particularly if they have not obtained satisfaction regarding the exercise of their rights - via the website www.ico.org.uk or at the following address:
Information Commissioner's Office, Wycliffe House, Water Lane, Wilmslow, Cheshire, SK9 5AF. Telephone: 0303 123 1113

Security

The data will be processed confidentially and subject to appropriate technical and organizational security measures to prevent alteration, loss, or unauthorized processing or access.
